EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS:

The Producers work closely with Live Performance Australia (the peak, National body governing live performance in Australia), and all necessary State bodies that monitor child employment. Strict guidelines for all company members must be adhered to, according to these conditions.

CASTING INCLUSIVITY STATEMENT:

The Producers wish to acknowledge a deep commitment to representative, inclusive and conscious casting on this production as follows. We endeavour to cast all characters whose identity is mentioned in the story as authentically as possible. This is a true story and due to the racial/cultural/historical/political climate of the time and the sensitive nature of the material please note the specificity of cultural backgrounds for each character. When identity is not crucial to the story, we will consider all people who can support the storytelling necessary and not be limited by stereotypes or societal expectations. We encourage artists to acknowledge their identity and self within the character and their personal and professional boundaries.

We welcome auditionees from all religious, sexual and gender identities or expression, political views, genetics, disability, neurodiverse backgrounds and age to audition.

ABOUT THE SHOW:

TEG Dainty and Paul Dainty AO together with Stage Entertainment and Tali Pelman, in association with Tina Turner present the smash hit musical TINA –THE TINA TURNER MUSICAL.

One of the world's best-selling artists of all time, Tina Turner has won 12 Grammy Awards and her live shows have been seen by millions, with more concert tickets sold than any other solo performer in music history. The musical shows the breadth of Tina Turner's life story ranging from growing up in Nutbush Tennessee to becoming one of the most iconic international female solo artists of all time.
